

To Those I Love And Those Who Loved Me

When I am gone, release me – let me go

I have so many things to see and do.

You must not tie yourself to me with tears

Be happy that we had so many years. I gave you love, you can only guess, how much you gave me in happiness.

I thank you for the love each have shown,

but now it is time I travelled alone.

So grieve awhile for me if grieve you must,
then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It is only for a while that we must part so bless those memories within your heart.

I will not be far away, for life goes on.
so if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you cannot see or touch me, I will be near

And if you listen with your heart, you will hear

All of my love around you, soft and clear.

Then when you must come this way alone,

I will greet you with a smile and say “Welcome Home”

Profile Of Life

*"The clock of life is wound but once
And no man has the power
To tell jus when the hands will stop,
At late or early hour
Now is the only time you own
Live, love and toil with a will
Place no faith in tomorrow,
For the clock may then be still."*

Quincy was born on September 11, 1952 to Charlie and Myrtis Williams, who preceded him in death along with his two siblings.

Quincy attended the Public School System located in New Britain Connecticut. He worked as a construction worker and was employed at Plant Vogtle for many years. Later in his life and career, he became a truck driver. He also worked at Walmart before his health began failing him.

Quincy was united for 48 years in Holy Matrimony to Ms. Mae Alice Dukes. To this union, five beautiful children were born.

In 2007, Quincy began his journey as Assistant Pastor of New and Living Way Worship Center. It was under the leadership of Pastor Christopher McBride, until his health failed. On the morning of January 1, 2021, God called our beloved Quincy home to eternal rest.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his loving and devoted wife, Mrs. Mae Alice Williams, his three sons; Gregory Dukes of New Britain Connecticut, Quincy (Laverna) Williams Jr., and Felton (April) Williams of Waynesboro, Georgia, two daughters, Gretta (Willie) Rollins of Waynesboro, Georgia and Myrtis (Daryl) Henry of Houma, Louisiana, one sister, Mary Hankerson of Augusta, Georgia, one uncle, Clarence (Ruth) Williams of New Britain Connecticut, three sisters-in-law; Nancy (Willie) Douse, Elizabeth Dukes, and Jeanette (Samuel) Burdett all of Waynesboro, Georgia, two brothers-in-law; Wheeler Dukes Jr. of Waynesboro, Georgia and John (Lisa) Dukes of Columbia South Carolina, fourteen grandchildren, two great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

*48 Years of Love
Shared Together.*
