

Precious Memories

*We weren't prepared that day
When God called you away
So many tears we cried
Longing to keep you at our side.*

*How we loved and missed you so
And weren't ready to let you go
But it gives us comfort to know
Within the twinkling of our eyes
You entered into paradise.*

*A place with beauty beyond measure
Eternal happiness and treasure
Where you have no more pain and tears
Nor sorrow, worries, and fears.*

*Although for now we are apart
Your precious memories live in our heart
Until God calls us each to Heaven's door
Where we will be reunited, forever more.*

God Saw You Getting Tired

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to me."*

*With tearful eyes we watched you
As you slowly slipped away
And though we loved you dearly
We couldn't make you stay.*

*Your golden heart stopped beating
Your tired hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

Words Of Gratitude

Obituary

Mrs. Virginia Young Williams, affectionally known as "Ginia", was born on January 26, 1946 to the late Benjamin Young and Arlene Franklin Young in Camden, AL. They relocated to Princeton, Florida where she established her life.

Virginia had a work ethic which deemed her as one of the hardest working women you would ever want to meet, and with those ethnics she had a giving heart. She was a joyful person who was always ready to crack a joke to make someone smile and laugh.

Virginia was also known for her cooking that she passionately loved, the store was her best friend, she was always ready to make a meal. Virginia was also known for her acts of kindness by those who knew her, such as visiting those who were sick and helping those in need.

On June 5, 1990, Virginia married the love of her life the late Robert L. Williams, Sr. in Miami, Florida. In 1991, they moved to Waynesboro, GA where they resided and enjoyed a successful lifestyle until God called them home.

Mrs. Virginia Young Williams was preceded in death by her loving husband; Robert L. Williams, Sr., her parents; Benjamin and Arlene Franklin Young, two sisters; Emma Lee White and Arlene Young, four brothers; Theodore Young, Paul Young, Henry Young and Johnny Lee Young.

On January 10, 2021, Virginia Young Williams transitioned from this earthly life to eternal life with the Lord surrounded by her family.

She leaves to cherish her memories: one daughter; Debbie (Albert) Mills of Augusta, Georgia, one son; Roger Young of Waynesboro, Georgia, two step-daughters; Lorraine (Benjamin) Wilson of Miami, Florida and Doris Williams, one step-son; Robert Lee Williams, Jr., two sisters; Flora Mae Young and Nona Campbell of Miami, Florida, one sister-in-law; Gloria Ann (John) Young of Miami, Florida, one granddaughter; Lashondrah Young, three grandsons; Rodrique Brown, Javen Jones and Marcus Brown, a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

*During your journey on your final flight home.
White wings will carry you and you will be flown.
To the pearly gates of Heaven, where they will usher you in.
To the feet of your Lord, your Saviour, and your friend.
He will hold you in his arms and the angels will sing.
As another one of His children is delivered by white wings.*
