

House of Clay

I have finished now with this house of clay

*Please kindly and carefully lay it away,
And let me rest from this life of pain,
Failing in sunshine, storm and rain.
Trying to help my family and friends
Turning no needy from my door
Many times I was misunderstood
When I had done the best I could.*

*I'm tired now so let me rest
Don't cry, don't you know
God knows best?*

*I have another house you know,
Where God's redeemed can go.*

*I don't need this house of clay
So tenderly, carefully lay it away.*

Life Reflections Of Musetta Taylor

On Tuesday, April 27, 2021, Musetta Taylor, loving mother, grandmother, and great grandmother, passed away at age 87.

Musetta was born on June 17, 1933 in Waynesboro, GA where she was raised. She later moved to New Haven, CT where she studied at South Central Community College and received an A.S. degree in Food Services. She worked many years at the VA Hospital as a Food Service Supervisor. She was a faithful member to Pine Hill Baptist Church in Waynesboro, GA her whole life. She also attended Emmanuel Baptist Church of New Haven during her time in CT before returning back to her hometown in Georgia where she spent the remainder of her years.

Musetta is survived by her two sons, Michael and Gus Lane, daughter in-law, Martha Lane, grandson Donnie Lane and several other grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces and nephews who loved her very much. She was preceded in death by her late husband, William Taylor, step-daughters, Darlene Taylor Wikens, Eddie Taylor, Patricia Simmons, Geneva Taylor and step-sons Mark, William and Venson Taylor.
